Please read carefully and only sign if you agree:

I agree to abide by French Immersion Camp regulations and participate in the program with an attitude of sharing, helping, and respecting all property, buildings and furnishings, listening to instructors and camp counselors, and working with my fellow classmates. I understand that this is a camp with Christian standards of behavior where I can learn about self control, character, integrity and honoring God and His Creation while having fun in a Medieval setting learning the French language and experiencing French culture and history. I understand that camp staff reserves the right to dismiss anyone who does not comply or create difficult problems for others. Expenses for this will be charged to me, my parents, or guardians. I agree that I will not use any wireless communication during the program schedule of activity times, nor after 11 pm unless for emergency purposes. I have read the rules and agree to abide by them.
